

Approved brand copy for the Ritmüller section on your website.

Beginning in 1795, Ritmüller quickly became one of the most acclaimed and innovative names in European piano making. Many of the most famous composers of the 19th century became devoted to Ritmüller pianos, including Johannes Brahms. Among the many quality components used in crafting Ritmüller pianos are tapered solid spruce soundboards, German Renner hammers, Strunz solid soundboards, Strunz and Dehonit pin blocks, Laukhuff keyboards, hornbeam wood actions, beech rims, and genuine ebony sharps.
